

Entry Blank Information/Suggestions/Guidelines

One horse and rider per Entry Blank

Signatures MANDATORY for Rider, Owner and Trainer
even if the same individual - SIGN all three places!

Reminder: Trainer is the ADULT on the grounds who is responsible for the care of the horse. Trainer is NOT necessarily a riding instructor. The only person who should sign this space is the person who is actually responsible for the care (feed, health) of the horse.

There must be a signature on the Trainer line in order for the bridle number to be given out.

Coach signature is required when the coach will be on the grounds.
Coach must be a member of USEF or pay the non-member fee.

When the care and ownership of the horse is in the hands of a Junior, that Junior's PARENT may sign the Owner line on behalf of the Junior, and may sign the Trainer line if there is no Trainer.
Non-member fees will not be charged.

STABLING REMINDER: If you are planning to stable with a group, please try to identify the group with one name AND have one person in the group send a complete list of horses/riders.

WE HAVE INCLUDED THE USDF CHECK LIST TO HELP THOSE WHO ARE INTERESTED.
IT IS NOT TO BE MAILED IN WITH THE ENTRY.

GREAT AMERICAN INSURANCE/USDF QUALIFYING
~ there are TWO recurring problems ~

The FIRST is the lack of proper memberships and Horse Registrations:

Rider must be USDF Participating and Owner must be USDF Participating or Business
Rider and Owner must both be competition members of USEF

Horse must be USDF Life Registered and USEF Life or Annual

The office staff makes every effort to check that you have the appropriate registrations and memberships, but the ultimate responsibility is yours.

The second recurring problem is that the Q has not been added to the test after it has been scored and reported. This can happen a number of ways, and it is therefore prudent to DOUBLE CHECK that your score is listed on the show records as a Qualifying score. The best way to check this is the Final Score report that is posted on the Showgrounds. On that report, there is a column that indicates whether or not that score will be submitted as a Qualifying score.

After the show, it is then a good idea to do a score-check on www.usdf.org. If the score is not reflected as Qualifying, contact USDF and the Show to find out what is the problem.

ENTER QUALIFYING CORRECTLY:

First, you do NOT need to indicate "Q" on classes that are eligible to be counted for CDS Qualifying. The "Q" is necessary only for GreatAmericanInsurance/USDF Regional Finals qualifying.

It is also your responsibility to enter the class correctly: Add the "Q" to the class number. Then check the day sheets and the FINAL SCORE SHEETS to be certain that the score is listed as a Qualifying score.

After the show, it is then prudent to do a score-check on www.usdf.org. If they have posted the scores for the show in question and the score is not reflected as Qualifying, please contact USDF and the Show to find out what the problem might be.
